President's Message

As we say goodbye to another successful NAPE many are reflecting on this year's event. Concerns have been expressed about NAPE, the AAPL Board of Directors and the executive committee. In response to same, DAPL AAPL Director, Bill Rex, recently sent a letter to the AAPL Board of Directors requesting the formation of a task force to study key AAPL decisions. The AAPL President has advised, in his response to Bill Rex's letter, that our concerns will be addressed at the upcoming board meeting on March 21st, in Kentucky. Charles Wetegrove, our regional representative, will be attending and promises to provide a report in the April newsletter.

Many thanks to Glen Mauldin and Caleb Fielder for the half-day seminar success, to our guest speakers, Cameron Cooper, Paul Nielsen, Paul Yale, and Randy Kirby and our sponsors, Anadarko Petroleum, Oasis Petroleum and Southwestern Energy. We had approximately 76 attendees who dined on fajitas, complements of Anadarko, and later met at Landry's for cocktails, appetizers and a bit of networking.

Time was running out and we could not get enough of the Ethics presentation given by Paul Nielsen, so we invited him to return and speak at our upcoming March 11th luncheon. Paul will expand on his ethics topic.

March 25th will be our next social at Goose's Acre in The Woodlands from 5 to 7 PM. Please note the venue change. Come meet and greet your fellow landmen.

The joint golf tournament is around the corner and we are looking for sponsors. Please respond to Joe Edgar at Southwestern Energy. If you have not heard NHAPL is having the premiere event of the year on May 6th. We have rented the rooftop of the old train station to watch the Astros play. Only 125 tickets are available to members only until April 1st and then ticket sales will be open to fellow local AAPL organizations. Registered members may mail their check to the NHAPL address or pay at the upcoming luncheon. Please contact Justin Foley or Cheryl Schmidt for ticket information or sponsorship!

Hope to see you at the March 11th luncheon!

Cynthia D Hardin, RPL
