

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13TH, 2018

NHAPL NOVEMBER LUNCHEON

TOM SENG – ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS – SCHOOL OF ENERGY, UNIVERSITY OF TULSA

SPEAKER:

- Tom Seng | Assistant Director for Undergraduate Programs – School of Energy, University of Tulsa

In addition to his instructional duties as Applied Assistant Professor of Energy Business, Mr. Seng serves as Assistant Director of the School of Energy Economics, Policy and Commerce, with primary responsibilities for coordinating undergraduate programs. He has more than 30 years of experience in the oil & gas industry, primarily in the midstream sector, and 14 years of experience as an adjunct instructor for various universities. His primary expertise lies in the areas of energy markets and commodities trading, but he is well versed in industry aspects of supply chain and logistics, particularly as they apply to the midstream oil and gas sector and the power sector. Prior to joining The University of Tulsa, Mr. Seng served as Manager of Product Marketing for Superior Pipeline, Senior Director for Market Development at Atlas Pipeline Mid-Continent, Senior Director for Commercial Operations at Ozark Gas Transmission Company, West Region Director and Director of Risk Services at ONEOK Energy Services, and Midcontinent Manager at PanEnergy Trading.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- December Charity Luncheon
 - * December 11, 2018 at Noble Energy Headquarters, Cypress
 - * Allocation wells in Texas – Industry Update
- SPRING 2018 LUNCHEON SPONSOR |
 - * Still open for sponsorship opportunity – opportunity available!